Man Jailed after Violent Fight with Neighbor

(REEDSBURG, WI) Late Thursday night, Reedsburg Police officers were dispatched to the area of Babb Avenue for a fight involving a hammer.

Jason L. Wright (30) of Reedsburg was arrested after he allegedly hit his neighbor with a hammer. The 28 year old male victim told police Wright accused him of starting a disturbance in the apartment building in the 600 block of Babb Avenue. The victim denied the accusation and Wright attacked him with a hammer. The victim was struck by the hammer in the head and taken to Reedsburg Area Medical Center for treatment.

Wright was arrested and charged with Substantial Battery and 2nd Degree Recklessly Endangering Safety. Wright was transported to the Sauk County Jail where he was held on those charges.
